

Keep an open Mind with Marietta Theunissen at Emperors Palace

Psychic healing and spiritual wellbeing at the Palace of Dreams

Emperors Palace in association with Reën Produksies presents the supernaturally talented, Marietta Theunissen live on stage for one show only at the Theatre of Marcellus on 6 October. Audience members will have a unique opportunity to interact with the clairvoyant, medium and teacher who boasts 5 successful seasons of KykNet's Die Ander Kant.

Theunissen has been in the industry for 25 years and has made it her life mission is to help people find closure when loved ones pass on and to let them go. During the performance she will assist audience members in becoming consciously aware and to gain a better understanding of the afterlife.

Born during a solar eclipse with her umbilical cord wrapped around her neck, Theunissen was thought to have died at birth. A sickly childhood left her in a world of fantasy, imagination and thought, at which time she began feeling the emotions of others, seeing nature spirits and being aware of spiritual beings.

Now based in New Zealand, Theunissen has honed her psychic talents over the years studying the tarot, astrology, numerology, runes, aura readings, chakras, past life regression, the teachings of Native Americans, and the speaking and healing of animals.

Tickets start from R120 per person and can be booked through the Emperors Palace Box Office on 011 928 1297 or by visiting www.emperorspalace.com. Winners Circle discounts apply. Dinner, show and stay packages available.
