

Casper Goes Khaki* at Emperors Palace

This September Emperors Palace presents the hilarious Casper de Vries in Casper Goes Khaki as part of the resort's 15th birthday celebrations. Preposterous, ridiculous and absurd are commonplace descriptions for De Vries, the country's most controversial Afrikaans comedian. For years the Afrikaans speaking community has enjoyed the notoriously off-kilter humor of Casper de Vries. And now for the first time he will share his outrageous wit in a full-length English stand-up show, Casper Goes Khaki, from 5 – 29 September in the well known Theatre of Marcellus.

Following the incredible success of MASS Hysteria, where De Vries performed in English alongside the finest South African comedians, he will once again push the boundaries in his first soutie-only production.

Tickets for Casper Goes Khaki start from R160 per person and can be booked through the Emperors Palace Box Office on 011 928 1297/1213 or through Computicket on www.computicket.com. Special dinner and show packages are available from R280 per person. Winners Circle discounts apply.
